

Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone

How does this book set up the entire series?

How does the Sorting affect different parties? How does personal choice factor in?

What elements of the long-term story do Dumbledore, Hagrid and others keep from Harry? Why do they do this?

The Harry-Ron-Hermione friendship is integral to the complete story. How do the foundations develop in this book?

How are Muggles and Muggle-borns portrayed in this book? Is it a form of racism? How does it lead into the other books?

How important is Quidditch to Harry, Hogwarts, the complete story?

If you could isolate one main theme of this book alone, what would it be?

How did you feel when you first realize that it's Quirrell and not the slimy Snape?

Snape. Let's talk about Snape.

Ok now let's talk about Neville FREAKING Longbottom.

What is your favorite part of this book? Why?

Your favorite quote:

